International Exchanges

Kobe University has concluded academic exchange agreements with more than 200 overseas universities and institutions for both inter-university and inter-faculty / graduate school exchanges. The Graduate School of Maritime Sciences is conducting intensive exchanges in education and research with the partner universities shown below.

as of February 1, 2017

International Association of Maritime Universities (IAMU)

IAMU was founded by seven universities representing the five continents of the world (Representative Universities) in November, 1999, with a shared recognition of significance of maritime education and training in the rapid globalization of the international shipping arena. Since then, IAMU has significantly expanded its membership, and now boasts 59 universities/academies/faculties of the world's maritime education and training institutions, and The Nippon Foundation as its members, totaling 60 altogether.

The Graduate School of Maritime Sciences (the former Kobe University of Mercantile Marine) was a founding member of IAMU, and has been a representative of the Asian area, playing a key role in promoting IAMU's development.
